February - May 2010

At BPP Malta you will have the choice of Introductory courses, Computer based courses and revision courses. Introductory and Computer based courses are held in the evening from 18:00 - 21:00hrs or on a Saturday/Public Holiday from 09:00 - 16:00hrs. Revision courses are held from 15:45 - 21:00hrs during the week and 09:00 - 14:00hrs on Saturdays or Public Holidays. Each Introductory and Revision paper consists of between 3 and 6 sessions, and Computer based papers consist of 6 - 9 sessions. This varies on the complexity of the subject matter. Students attempting F1, F2 and F3 computer based examinations must attend the computer based integrated lectures held in the evening and Saturdays. Due to the short length of time between the publication of the exam results and the final exam it may be necessary to hold some courses on a Public Holiday. Please note that we do not run training courses for P4 and P5 August to November BPP Timetable in preparation for ACCA/MIA examinations. *The initials per paper refer to the respective Lecturers. Please refer to the 'Lecturers section' on the BPP website to view all lecturers.
